

8

Yashavantrao Chavan Institute of Science, Satara
Department of Chemistry organizes Guest lecture on Science-Applied Research

18/01/2019

Department of Chemistry organized a one day workshop on 'Presentation skill to develop communication Skill and stage daring. To serve as a forum to discuss issues in the direction of development of the research potential and capability and to support in promoting and coordinating research work among the student, organized guest lecture on Science-Applied Research by Prin. Dr. K.G. Kanade that can be constructive not only in imparting knowledge to the students but also enable them.

